

BlackBerry®

Enterprise Server (BES) 5.0

making life easier for IT administrators

The new version of the BlackBerry® Enterprise Server (BES) 5.0 is available from 1 July 2009. BES 5.0 will make managing the BlackBerry® easier for IT administrators. End-to-end encryption ensures the customary high level of security.

Your benefits at a glance:

Brand-new user interface

- > Web-based, WAN-enabled, intuitive and easy-to-use user interface

Active Directory Integration

- > Integration in the existing group structure within Active Directory

Full functionality of Application Programming Interfaces (API)

- > Administrative user interface fully connects up every standard API

Enhanced software configuration

- > Administrators can control and limit downloads
- > Unified management of applications such as Java, MDS and 3rd Party

Enhanced groups and roles

- > Specific roles and role restrictions
- > Users can now belong to several different groups

Application deployment can be planned

- > Policy updates, software delivery and configuration changes can be planned

High availability

- > High availability across all components

Enhanced monitoring

- > Extended threshold levels and reliable alerts

Limited downtime upgrades

- > Automatic upgrade option and flexible choice of software

Straightforward PBX integration

- > Full PBX interface support

If you have any questions, please contact your personal customer advisor.